Rev. Mr. Finley

Respected Brother

by an arrangement made at a late meeting of the Dayless Division of the Philanthropic order of the Sons of Temperance I was appointed to solicit some one to give a Public address to our People of the Subject of the order I therefore take the liberty ask you (as I believe you to be one of the great advocates of the order) to meet us on Tuesday or Friday of next week at the colored Methodist Church for the purpose of giving us such an address as you may think suitable for the occasion I am therefore yours in love Purity and fidelity

J. Jenkins W. P. of D. I
