Sir

Chillicothe October 28th 1847

Having been appointed on a Com^{tee} to collect information relative to crimes caused by Intemperance & embody the same in a report to the Leary Division of the Ins of Intemperance in Chillicothe. I have deemed it advisable to communicate with you on the subject as you have the means of information at hand - I do this the more readily as I feel assured that you are willing at all times to do every thing to further the cause, to carry forward which we are mutually pledged - Any information you can furnish on this subject will be gratefully received by

Very Respectfully
