Rev. James B. Finley
Worthy Brother

I take the liberty of making a request of you with regard to the Grand Division Registry about the 10th of January last I sent the Registry in a lot directed to the care of Bro. Saml. Gollomay of your City requesting an answer from him on the resp^t of the lot but have never received an answer from Bro. Gollomay the request I now to make is do you know whether he read the Book and the Registry was in time for the Session of the G. D. at Springfield and in whose care they are at present and if you will see that they will be forwarded to me at Zionsville on or before the 1st of April and enough of Broth^r Gollomay of the money I sent was sufficient to pay the charges if not what may be the Balance at the time of the Session of the G. D. at Springfield I was conferr^d with Pres^{id}puter the cause of Dispersion here is again flourishing & Our Division is increasing slowly but with Marks of the right sort who enter into the good work with the right kind of Zeal

Yours in C. P. S. H
