My dear fri-

Yours of the 13th inst is before me - I anticipate much pleasure from your promised visit with our mutual friend Bro Strickland.

I have but a slight acquaintance with Mr J. S. McDonough; so far as I know, he is trust-worthy & industrious. Bro Pilcher says he has known him for four years past & considers him in politics, a Whig, in religion, a Methodist, & in general, a safe & substantial man -

Yours most fraternally
