Sir,

I enclose to you an address of Samuel S. Conant of New York, and request, with the view of promoting the views of this Gentleman which I deem to be highly praiseworthy, that you will transmit to him, under cover to the Secretary of War, (writing on the communications Indian Affairs) such specimens of Indian Oratory as you may be able to collect, and may deem worthy a place in the work which he proposes to publish.

I am,
very Respectfully
Yr Obedt ^{Servt}
