Dear Brother,

Yours of the 19th ult never reached me until three days ago, and having been much engaged in that time, I have not been able to make much enquiry respecting the accommodation of one of the Indian boys, however, I think I may say without doubt we can accommodate one for ~~five~~ six or eight months, whom you may bring or send as soon as you please.

I received a letter from Bro. Bigelow the same evening I received yours on the same subject. your communication had reached him. He seemed <sup>much</sup> sturd up in that matter and will no doubt, do what he can to have your wishes accomplished.

I hope you will spend a sabbath with us when you come to ~~the~~

I am glad to hear of your good meetings since conference and hope with you that they will improve.

Our society here I think ~~is~~<sup>is</sup> in a good state some small difficulties occur occasionally, but they are fewer and less than after occur after great revivals.

I remain yours in much love
