Dear Sir

I find that it is the wish of a considerable number of the most decent people among you and the reverend who I wish to say that you refer to the Museum that is to take charge of it, although you may have some enemies in this part of the County yet they are among the most worthless. I am confident that the better class who you should put in charge to come this fall or next I am certain you would be well received by the most intelligent people in this part of the County

Believe me my dear Sir to be your friend

Revd James B. Finley Esq

Ridgewell

You will receive a letter from Mr. Hedges on this subject
