Wyanadoll City April 25. 1848

Dear Sir

Enclosed you a memorial, address to the General Conference, adopted by the Council of the Wyanadoll nation and by the official members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in our nation -

I am directed to forward it to you, it being the wish of the memorialists that it should be presented by you to that body. And if you, ^{can} aid the memorialists in the object of their prayer, without a departure from your duty, as a public man, you will place us under increased obligations for the many acts of kindness and devotion to the Wyanadolls.

With the friendly salutations and greetings of the nation, I remain, very truly, yours,

Agnes Washington,
Principal Chief of the
Wyanadoll nation.

Geo James B. Finley
Delegate to Gen Conference
