9-9-1848

Letter from Squire Gray Eyes & John M. Armstrong to James B. Finley

Squire Gray Eyes
John M. Armstrong

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters/1289

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Finley Letters Collection at Digital Commons @ OWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Finley Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ OWU. For more information, please contact earutigl@owu.edu.
Dear Brother,

Since the meeting of the official members of M.E. Churches here, whose proceedings were sent to your informing you and the Ohio Conference of its decision, the enemy has been at work. It seems that our strongest arm members are willing to resort to any means not open to maintain their grasp over the Indians here in the way not contained in the treaty was got up composed of a committee &c. &c. Wholeless infidelities, inclination, and backsliders and possess certain premises and resolutions and that them to the Ohio Company. Now the colonially failed against the proceeding of this meeting having any force or validity whatever. In the first place it would not be a national meeting there being but 7 signatures present. In the second place a large majority of those present were not members of the Church it is reasonable to conclude that these were present who would vote out of the court if any thing was set in their hands. Their clause in life is every indication of leniency, and, during the night of any such body to dictate in trespass or interference in Church matters whatever. The main clause name is applied to the resolutions reported as secretary. I put this letter in having before we came to this country. He professes no religion. Hence the whole work in a haphazard village in a state of insurrection. I have been told he has done more than any other man seen on the mission to lead two young people into habits of intemperance. Such is the man who is the master spirit of the faction got up in favor of the new church and with his aid have succeeded too well in dividing our ranks. Old man Banks the two sons (J.A. Banks & Little Olony) and Dave Young of the official members have deserted our old style. At a meeting of the official members there from bottom agreed to come back and stay with us if a majority of the members will decide against them. But having had time to consult their advisers out of the church have since refused to comply with their agreement.

Wyandot Nation 18th. 8. 1835.

Our present missionary has deeply grieved and betrayed us. He has always held out the idea to us that he was interested in the advancement of that the might when a suit -able opportunity present itself go with or rather persuade with us in the Old Church. But his subsequent conduct shows that his pretensions were shallow and deceptive. When we were about to adopt measures to erect a new church building some of our official members objected alleging that the South might not. Our missionary asked me and said that that need not be given as an objection for it was certain that which ever went the Loyalist would own the church property would go. One now the brings a very different story of their being twelve members go with us as we have a parting and meeting house we can still hold our meeting. And in the language now. Pray for us dear brethren that the Lord may give us wisdom in this our time of trouble.

Your brother in Christ. John M. Armstrong

Rev. J.P. Finley
Oshun Conference
Dear Brother

Since the meeting of the official members of M.E. Church here whose proceedings were sent to you informing you and the Ohio Conference of its decision, the enemy has been at work.

It seems that our slave dealing missionaries are willing to resort to any means whatever to maintain their grasp upon the Indians. Here in the Wyandott nation a meeting was got up composed of nonprofessers slave dealers infidels inebriates and backsliders and passed a certain preamble and resolutions and sent them to the Ohio Conf.

Now we solemnly protest against the proceeding of that meeting having any force or validity whatever. In the first place it could not be called a national meeting there being but 47 Wyandotts present. In the second place a large majority of those present were not members of the church. It is reasonable to conclude that there were some present who would vote out of the world religion itself were it in their power, if their course in life is any indication of sentiment.

We deny the right of any such body to dictate interfere or intermeddle in any church matter whatever. The man whose name is appended as secretary to the resolutions referred to has involved himself in slavery since we came to this country. He professes no religion, spends whole weeks in a neighboring village in a state of intoxication, a man who has done worse than any other ten men in the nation to lead our young people into habits of intemperance. Such is the man who is master spirit of the faction got up in favor of the new church and with his aids have succeeded too well in dividing our ranks. Old man Hicks his two sons (F.A. Hick & Little Chief) and David Young of the official members have deserted our old ship. At a meeting of the official members these four brethren agreed to come back and stay with us if a majority of the membership decided against them. But having had time to consult their advisors out of the church have since refused to comply with this agreement.

Our present missionary has deeply galled and betrayed us. He has always held out the idea to us that he was northern in his sentiments and that he might when a suitable opportunity presented itself go with or rather remain with us in the old church but his subsequent conduct shows that his pretentions were shallow and deceptive. When we were about to adopt measures to erect a new church building some of our official members objected alledging that the South might claim it. Our missionary spoke up and said that need not be urged as an objection for it was certain that which ever way the Wyandott Societys went the church property would go, and now he sings a very different song. “If there be only twelve members go with us we have a parsonage and meetinghouse we can still hold our meetings.” Such is the language now.

Pray for us dear brother that the Lord may give us wisdom in this our time of trouble.
Your brothers in Christ

Squire Grey Eyes

John M. Armstrong

Rev. J.B. Finley

Ohio Conference